Pay Premium and AutoPay Guide

PWGA PAY PREMIUM WITH AUTOPAY

You now have the ability to make dependent premium payments on the website or by using the PWGA app. You can also set up automatic payments of dependent premiums.

You just sign in and select Pay Premium or AutoPay. If you select AutoPay, it’s a one-time process, and your dependent premiums will be paid automatically thereafter. You never have to worry about whether or not you remembered to make your payment. Your spouse and dependents are secure.

- One-time registration
- The PWGA checks the records, determines when payment is due, and makes it
- You are automatically notified if a credit card is going to expire soon so you can replace it with a new one
- You can log in any time and check to see that the payment has been made
- The AutoPay will automatically cancel if you don’t have coverage in the upcoming quarter

PAY PREMIUM

When the App was first introduced, Pay Premium was referred to as QuickPay. We changed the name because we wanted it to be absolutely clear: Participants can pay their dependent premiums via the app or the website by selecting Pay Premium, and if they want, they can also set it up to pay that dependent premium automatically via AutoPay.

AUTOPAY

Every year, writers lose coverage for their spouses and their dependents because they forget to pay their dependent premiums. The consequences can be devastating. Now, this never has to happen again. You can pay your dependent premiums electronically, and if you want, you can set the dependent premium to be paid automatically.

Take a few moments to sign up, and you never have to worry again about whether or not you made your dependent premium payment, or when the next one might be due.

You can make your dependent premium by using the new app or by going to the website – either will work.
